

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI - 2015

REBECCA BARR, PH.D.

CLASS OF 1956

After growing up as a very involved ALHS student, Becky received her BA from Monmouth College. She continued her education while teaching and doing research for various colleges and foundations. She earned her Ph.D. from the U of M in 1968. Becky's life was dedicated to helping learners, through her college teaching, her research projects, her professional grants management, her professional writings, and her family. Becky spent her professional life working in the research of how children learn to read and how to help those who had difficulties learning to read.
